

JOB DESCRIPTION

Backend Software Engineer

OBJECTIVE/PURPOSE

Design and development of back-end software components for the different products of the company. Also support in other activities related to Big Data applications and BI Dashboard construction in last generation technologies.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Development of RESTful APIs, SDKs and other back-end components to perform interconnections with third-party data sources.
- Support the Head of Big Data & BI in the execution of processes for data cleaning and data standardization.
- Support in the construction of BI dashboards for data providers and customers.
- Perform project & code documentation activities.
- Perform customer support and troubleshooting activities.

REQUIREMENTS

- Finished studies for degree in information technology, Computer Science or related field.
- At least one year of experience working in the development of back-end services and RESTful APIs in Java and AWS technologies (Docker, Spring, Spring Boot, Spring Cloud, GIT).
- Knowledge in Microsoft .NET and Power BI is a plus.

SKILLS/COMPETENCIES

- Computational skills
- Extremely proactive and efficient
- Service oriented
- Team player, with disposition to give support in other activities outside of the main responsibilities